

It was disclosed that Mr. Kennedy left the White House yesterday for about two hours to visit the new Central Intelligence Agency headquarters at nearby Langley, Va. His tour of the CIA facilities was conducted by Director Allen Dulles. Mr. Kennedy was the first President to make a personal inspection of CIA facilities.